Principal's Pen

If you type the question "How many times does the phrase do not fear appear in the Bible?" into the Google search box, it will inform you that the phrase (or a phrase like it) will appear 365 times in the Bible.

I don't know if that is true as I've never taken the time to count that phrase every time it occurs in the Bible, but I do not have any reason to necessarily doubt the information presented either.

The graduating 8th graders chose one of those "do not fear" references of the Bible as their graduation verse. Isaiah 41:10 says, "So do not fear, for I am with you; do not be dismayed, for I am your God. I will strengthen you and help you; I will uphold you with my righteous right hand".

Regardless of whether the Bible actually uses this phrase 365 times, it is accurate that God offers these words of comfort and encouragement to us often throughout the Bible. In fact, this concept is presented three quick times in Ch. 41 - verse 10, 13 and 14. Indeed, we really do need to hear this 365 days of the year as we are all prone to being anxious, discouraged, dismayed, and fearful.

This verse from Isaiah falls in a section where God explains that He is the helper of Israel. This is an important detail because there are many things in life that can cause Israel (us) to be anxious, discouraged, or dismayed and we need God to be our helper.

For the 8th graders, the fact that they are leaving the familiar for the unfamiliar may be an item of anxiousness. Regardless of the situation, the comfort we have is that God has His plan for our life that all unfolds within His timing. We need to realize it's His plan and it's His timing. Not ours.

That means we might feel frustrated or anxious simply because things are not according to our plans and our timing. We like to have control of life's situations, but ultimately, we need to submit to our all-sufficient Heavenly Father who knows what is best for us. Knowing that God is certainly able to help, strengthen, and uphold us in all times of life, as Isaiah says, is a wonderful comfort.

If you keep reading in Isaiah 41, you'll read about all the amazing things that God will do / has done for the Israelites in verses 11-19. And then verse 20 says, "so that people may see and know, may consider and understand, that the hand of the Lord has done this".

God's activity in our lives is a way others can come to know Him.

Our lives, through what God is doing, are a witness and testimony to those around us about the great God whom we serve.

This is also important for our 8th graders to remember as they move to high school. They are already witnesses of God's excellent work within their lives and they have a responsibility to express that to others, just as we all do. A new school with new people is a great place to do this!

Make the most of every opportunity to promote the name of God who upholds us with His righteous right hand.

We are glad to have you all fill those roles at Sanborn Christian School next year!

Classroom Spotlight – Mr. De Groot

As we close our 22-23 school year, I am convinced that there is no better way to end than with the 10th commandment. Even phrased in the negative, as we see it in Exodus 20:17, "You shall not covet" is a commonly accepted phrase. A quick search of quotes about coveting will show that even unbelievers of certain philosophies can get on board with it! Coveting's self-destructive nature is clear, at times, even to fallen man. The reason it's a great way to end, however, is not because of its wide acceptance, but because of this command's overarching implications.

Coveting is a matter of the heart. No matter where you look in scripture, that's what we see. When Ahab desires in his heart the vineyard of Naboth, he covets. When David sees and desires his neighbor Uriah's wife, he covets. When the rich fool in Jesus' parable sees all he already has, he covets, and then rests self-assured in his own solution. What strikes me most about all three of these examples of coveting, however, is what ties the three men together – they all covet not out of want or need, but out of the excess they already have. This, then, is the root of coveting: misplaced desires.

In chapel this month, we looked at how God created us "very good" with good desires. Desire itself is not the problem. In the fall, however, our desires are naturally fallen, and in our new life in Christ, they need to be trained. A well-trained dog can be a faithful protector, a loving pet, and a useful companion. A poorly trained dog will try to pull and control. We need to train our desires, not let them pull us around.

The reason for this, ultimately, is because coveting is a heart matter. As a heart matter, it means that coveting gets the whole of our being involved. In each example of coveting above, the sin of coveting, which started at the heart, ended up in a greater sin – murder, adultery, lying, blasphemy, idolatry. This final command shows us how in the law, any infraction breaks the whole law. This can only point us to Christ, as we see our own hopelessness in the law.

Classroom Spotlight – Mr. De Groot (Continued)

In our new life in Christ, we are as Paul talks about so many times, set free from the law so that we can live in Christ. In Jr. High devotions this year, I've focused on this concept by looking at Psalm 119 throughout the first half of the year (how good God's law is and how great God is) and then looked at Galatians in this last quarter (how great God is in Christ's sacrifice). Our life is now a life lived in the joy of Christ. It's a life lived under our theme for the year where we "love God" and "love our neighbor." It's a life lived with the kind of comfort our theme verse for the month gives us in Hebrews 13: "be content with what you have, for [God] has said, 'I will never leave you nor forsake you.'"

In 7th grade this month, we have been studying the Pilgrim's Progress now that we've wrapped up our unit on poetry by expressing through poetry. In Bible, we're just starting a lightning speed overview of church history from the Middle Ages to today, and in English we're in the final stages of a research paper. It's wonderful to see the students continuing to grow in their ability to express themselves clearly and fluently in each subject.

Building Debt Update

We continue to keep in front of the society the financial end of this expansion. The total spent on the building was $3,335,935 along with a $200,000 contribution to the Foundation which brought the total expense to $3,535,935 (not including interest accruals). The following is a chart to help you see the great progress that we have had in paying off this project:

	Building Expansion Debt Remaining:
Original Cost of Project	$3,535,936
April 1, 2017	$2,008,538
April 1, 2018	$1,253,000
April 1, 2019	$779,500
April 1, 2020	$530,050
April 1, 2021	$364,050
April 1, 2022	$116,911
April 1, 2023	$38,500

Our unpaid balance is under $40,000! We are very thankful for the financial support received at this point in the project, and we continue to ask that you continue to watch these numbers as we report them monthly, and prayerfully consider opportunities to continue to help us reduce the debt and complete this project.

NICSTO Tax Credit

(Northwest Iowa Christian School Tuition Organization)

Explanation for DONORS

The state has recognized the need to support taxpayers who wish to support Christian education. Iowa taxpayers can receive a tax credit up to 75% of their donation that supports families who need tuition assistance and deduct the gift on Federal Income Tax. How does it work?

1. You must owe Iowa state income tax.
2. You must make out a check to NICSTO (Northwest Iowa Christian School Tuition Organization) and designate it to Sanborn Christian.
3. Complete the "Contribution Memo" and send it with the check to Sanborn Christian.
4. NICSTO will send you a letter of receipt for your Federal Tax information.
5. In early January, you will receive a tax credit certificate to attach to your Iowa tax form.

Example: If you contribute $1,000 to NICSTO, you will receive a 75% tax credit or $750 on your IA income tax. In addition, you may claim some of that on your federal income tax.

Your money will be used for families who qualify for NICSTO at Sanborn Christian School.

Would you like to have your Iowa income taxes go to Sanborn Christian to help with the tuition scholarships AND pay down the building debt at the same time...or for it to go to Des Moines?

If you have an IA income tax liability of $750, you could give $1,000 to NICSTO which would then provide SCS with that $1,000 to be used for tuition scholarships. Then when you do your tax work in March/April, you will receive a tax-credit of $750 from the State of Iowa. You could then give this $750 refund to Sanborn Christian to help eliminate the debt on our school. Sanborn Christian benefits by $1,750 through a $1,000 gift: $1,000 to NICSTO, $750 to building debt.

For those who are at least 70.5 years old, we encourage you to give from your IRA (you may use your RMD) to NICSTO. If you give $1,000 from your IRA you do not need to include it as taxable income on your return. SCS receives that $1,000 for NICSTO tuition scholarships, plus you will receive a state income tax credit of $650 that you can use to help SCS eliminate the remaining building debt. Once again, SCS benefits by $1,650 on a $1,000 gift!!

Really?

Yes! The NICSTO program has been around for years and has been a benefit to both the recipient (SCS) and the donor (you). This is a great tax benefit to those who will be paying taxes on their income.

If you wish to donate, please fill out the donor sheet (included in the School Bell) and return it to SCS by December 1, 2023.
